If Selected as the Miss Charlevoix Venetian Queen, the entrant further agrees to the following:

1. If, during the reign of Miss Charlevoix, she no longer meets the requirements of eligibility in the opinion of the Queen's Committee and the Venetian Board of Directors, she will forfeit her crown and all awards presented to her.
2. Throughout the year, Miss Charlevoix will be required to attend and participate in numerous events. All appearances are scheduled, arranged, and supervised by the Queen's Committee or a designated representative of the Charlevoix Venetian Festival so as to reflect the values and high standards of the program and enhance its visibility within our community, region, and state. The first runner up will have no continuing obligation, unless Miss Charlevoix is unable to finish her reign, in which even the first runner up will be called upon to assume and perform the role and obligations of Miss Charlevoix.
3. The Miss Charlevoix Venetian Queen will not appear in public as Miss Charlevoix without proper approval of the Director or a designated representative of the Charlevoix Venetian Festival. She will make such public appearances only in the presence of a chaperone officially appointed for her by the Director. Furthermore, she will not bring guests along with her while making such appearances; this includes, but is not limited to, family members, friends, and significant others.
4. Continued failure to attend scheduled functions, violations of her contract, or public conduct which the Queen's Committee deems to be a discredit to the Queen or to the Venetian Festival, may result in action by the Committee to remove her title and role as Miss Charlevoix.
5. Miss Charlevoix shall follow conservative wardrobe guidelines, approved by the director, throughout her reign and during appearances. In addition, there shall be NO major alterations in physical appearance without prior approval by the Queen's Committee. This may include piercings (other than the ears) tattoos, dramatic changes in hair color or style, or other alterations to determine what may constitute a "major alteration in physical appearance."
6. The young lady selected as Miss Charlevoix Venetian Queen will receive a $3,000 scholarship paid directly to the school of her choice, subject to the provisions set forth above in the previously said section.
7. The Queen's Committee, may, in their sole and absolute discretion, waive or alter any provision herein, or any rule or regulation, for good cause.

I hereby accept the terms, rules, and regulations stated above and I acknowledge that this document is a contract by which I will be bound.
